

Williamstown

QUIET & CONVENIENT

Located in a quiet spot and convenient to the main street and all the facilities the town has to offer, this neat and tidy brick veneer home built in 1984 offers you 3 bedrooms, master with built in robe, L-shaped lounge/dine, ducted evaporative air conditioning and slow combustion heating.

2 separate carports, one each side of the home with its own driveway and one with an auto roller door ensures plenty of parking and no early morning shuffles to get your car out. Alongside the home is a single car shed/workshop with access to it offering more parking.

At the rear a full width verandah offers a private entertaining area and shelter from the elements.

Low maintenance gardens at the front and the rear garden consists of a wide variety of trees and shrubs and is a haven for birdlife.

Set on a 915m² block, this home is ideal as a first home or retirement home.
